If you've applied to study at Worcester, this is your chance to get to know us better.

Booking

If you have been made an offer to study at the University of Worcester, you will receive an email including a link to the online booking system. If you are having trouble see our booking guidance or contact our Admissions Team on 01905 855111 or email admissions@worc.ac.uk.

Programmes will be sent the week before the event to everyone booked to attend.

Joint Honours

If you are a Joint Honours applicant, please check which days your courses are represented, as they may be split between Saturday 10 and Sunday 11 February. If that's the case, you'll have the option to book onto both of these days, so you can either come along to both, or choose which subject you want to attend and book for that particular day.

Alternatively, our Applicant Day on Sunday 25 March will feature all courses, so you can book for that date instead.
